Bank of America Corporate Center

Bank of America Corporate Center consists of the office tower, Founders Hall, and Bank of America Center parking garage. As one of the tallest buildings in the Southeast, Bank of America Corporate Center office tower rises 871 feet, making it the focal point of Charlotte's skyline. The office tower contains 60 stories and totals approximately 1,212,176 rentable square feet. The Corporate Center is located at the corner of Trade and Tryon Streets, known locally as The Square, which is the historic crossroads of the city and the site of its founding more than 250 years ago. The Corporate Center shares a city block with the North Carolina Blumenthal Performing Arts Center.

The office tower's crown consists of 384 specially designed rods, varying in length from 12 to 62 feet and weighing between 800 and 4,500 pounds each. The crown is illuminated at night.

The Corporate Center has earned LEED EB Silver certification.
